Special Projects

June 27, 2019 was the reveal and Lunch-N-Learn Day of The Orchard House in Gibson County, the missing link to RAMP (Re-Entry Advanced Manufacturing Program). Opening in late Fall this year, The Orchard House will provide residential living, transportation, accountability, faith-based structured life along with job placement through FW United Group, LLC for men released from incarceration, homeless, or self-reporting to the Program in need of assistance with getting their life back on a track of self-sustainability. Many of our RAMP graduates from the Gibson County Jail are the ones doing the construction work on the facility and will be the first residents of The Orchard House.
